

CANBERRA RAPE CRISIS CENTRE

*Sexual assault counselling for women, children and men. Community education and training.
24 hour crisis support and advocacy.*

Strategic Plan

2009-2011

VISION STATEMENT

Canberra Rape Crisis Centre will work within a feminist framework to be an active, visible catalyst for social change by:

- challenging societal values and inequitable structures that perpetuate violence against women and others, and by
- providing high quality services

Key focus area	Services	Community Engagement	External Relationships	Organisational Strengthening
Outcome	High quality services that address the diverse needs of women, children and men affected by rape and sexual violence.	Increased awareness and knowledge of the causes and impacts of rape and sexual violence. Influence systemic and social change and alternative responses.	Collaborative and productive working relationships in place with key agencies that address the structural causes of sexual violence, improve justice responses and build integrated responses to increase support to victim/survivors.	An organisational culture and environment that values and supports all workers and committee members to deliver outcomes of excellence
